

Terms and Conditions of Participation

All ticket purchases (incl. evening and cultural program) are subject to our guidelines and can be cancelled before 22 March 2026 as follows.

Registration conditions

- Registration for participation is binding. Registration for the congress implies an obligation to pay.
- All participants (including speakers, chairs, discussants, moderators, etc.) are obliged to register.
- The registration fee is due with the booking confirmation sent by ConfTool and must be paid within 14 days of saving the registration form.
- A claim to participation exists only after receipt of the entire participation fee.
- If there is a registration for a workshop, a cultural and / or evening event and payment is not received on time, the entitlement to a place in the booked event expires.
- If a payment is not received on time before the end of a discount period, the undiscounted amount is automatically due.

Changes to an existing booking

Changes to an existing booking can only be made by the congress office (e.g. deleting or adding evening events or lunch packages). Please send an email to dgfe2026@edu.lmu.de for this purpose.

Cancellation policy

- until 30.11.2025: free of charge
- until 31.01.2026: Refund of the costs minus 50%
- until 28.02.2026: Refund of the costs less 75%
- from 01.03.2026: no refund possible

- Refunds for cancelled tickets (including opening event, cultural and supporting program) will only be processed after the conclusion of the congress.
- In the event of unforeseen circumstances, we reserve the right to deduct expenses already incurred from the ticket revenues collected up to that point. After these deductions, participants will receive a corresponding refund for their tickets.

Sabrina Grunau

Projectcoordination GERA-congress 2026

Munich, 07.05.2025